CONDUCT POLICY (PART 1)

Sweet Springs Baptist Academy recognizes that it cannot meet the educational needs of all children. It is a school offering a high quality of Christian training but is not to be a correctional institution for problems arising beyond those usually encountered in average school children. While we love delinquent and emotionally unstable children, the school is not equipped to meet their needs. Some children do not adjust to a disciplined academic environment and find excuses to criticize the policies and decisions of staff and administration. In such cases, the school reserves the right to have full discretion in the discipline, with corporal punishment administered by the parent, then to place such students on probation for a reasonable corrective period of time. Any student who does not cooperate with the total educational process will be dismissed.

I, the parent/guardian, realize that from time to time children take issue with actions that they do not agree with and they are prone to criticize statements out of context. This being normal for children, I pledge that if this should occur, I will not support criticism; I will support school personnel first, then call the school for details, and correct my child.

I further realize that building strong relations with my child's supervisor to aid in the training of my child is as much my responsibility as it is the schools, and I will pray for the staff and program. I will cooperate with them in discipline, accepting their judgment in all such matters. I will lay a spiritual foundation through Godly example in the home and support the spiritual training of the Church. I will follow through with any work assignments or forms to be signed; see that my child reaches school on time; send written reasons for absences or tardiness; cooperate in training the child to respect school property and pay for any abuse to the same; attend all parent functions; and assist in publicizing the school and its programs among friends.

I realize that attending Sweet Springs Baptist Academy is a privilege and not a right. It is my intention to abide by the decisions and support the discipline of the administration.

Learning without discipline is impossible. Listed below are a few of the areas where corrections will be required:

1. Disrespect to Staff or students.
2. General disturbances such as talking without permission and interrupting class.
3. Not completing assigned work.
4. Destroying or defacing Church property.
5. Stealing or cheating of any kind.
6. Fighting or threatening any Staff member or member of the student body.
7. Any disorderly conduct.
8. Leaving school grounds without permission.
9. Not having forms signed and returned when due.
10. Not complying with school dress code.
11. Being off limits inside or outside the Church building.
12. Any conduct that is not in agreement with the doctrine and purpose of Sweet Springs Baptist Academy.

Any student observing questionable activities or overhearing conversations that may cause harm to a Staff member or members of the student body should discuss the matter immediately with the supervisor. This is not tattling, it has been said, "All it takes for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing."

"...to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin." James 4:17

We believe that character is important to everyone. The desire of the Academy is to develop character that is consistent with the Scripture. Have you ever been saved? _____ If yes, explain: _____

Do you agree to accept the Bible as God's Word and submit yourself to its principles as the final authority?

Have you or do you smoke? _____ Have you or do you drink alcoholic beverages? _____

Will you promise not to draw, wear, or display in any way anti-Christian symbols? _____

Do you want to attend this Academy? _____ Why? _____

As a student of the Academy, I pledge to uphold this Academy's rules and guidelines stated in the Academy's handbook. I will maintain behavior, which exemplifies courtesy, kindness, morality, and honesty. I will strive to be of unquestionable character in dress, conduct, and other areas of life.

I agree to abide by the above standards of conduct and other regulations expected of each student enrolled in this Academy while I am a student attending the Academy and will not give the impression to students, parents, or faculty that I am not in harmony with the goals, aims, and standards of the Academy.

Discipline is a part of education. Here, a discipline is maintained which is firm, consistent, fair, and tempered with love. Our staff maintains standards of behavior in the Learning Center through kindness, love, and a genuine regard for the student. However, when disciplinary action becomes necessary, it is firmly carried out. Tempered by good judgment and understanding.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE POLICY

We believe in order to have a high quality Christian education, you must be active in Church. The more active you are, the more you will grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We have established a policy every student must abide by. It is what we feel is important and needful to helping with Christian education.

SWEET SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH MEMBERS

All students who attend Sweet Springs Baptist Academy are required to attend at least two of the following services each week: Sunday School, Sunday Morning Service, Sunday Night Service, and/or Wednesday Night Service. At certain times, students may be required to attend other services as determined by the administrative staff of Sweet Springs Baptist Academy.

SWEET SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH NON-MEMBERS

All students who attend Sweet Springs Baptist Academy, who are members and attending another Baptist Church of like doctrine, faith, and order, are permitted to attend their Church at least two of the following services: Sunday School, Sunday Morning Service, Sunday Night Service, and/or Wednesday Night Service. Students who do not attend Church are required to attend two services here at Sweet Springs Baptist Church. Students will be required to bring reports with proper signatures verifying their attendance. These students may also be required to attend any service at Sweet Springs Baptist Church or other places as determined by administrative staff.

Those who agree to this policy and fail to keep their commitment, on a regular basis, the student will be dismissed from the Academy.

If a student is sick, providentially hindered, or out of town and cannot find another Church, the parent must write a note for them. If there is another reason why they could not attend, a note is required, and at that time it will be determined whether they are excused or unexcused. This policy is one of the most important that we have; therefore, consider it carefully before entering into the agreement.
